Pastor's Corner February 2011

In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; (Ephesians 1:13)

This month the church will receive a fairly large group into the church body. The new members will be installed on the 12th of February at both services. It's exciting to talk with the followers of Jesus who are placing their faith into this faith community. Paul reminds us that as we hear God's word we hear the word of truth. I encourage you to take some time to congratulate the new members and help them feel the welcoming love of Jesus.

This month is also the beginning of Lent. I hope that you will be part of the worship experience on Ash Wednesday. The church will offer two services for that day one at noon and the other at 7:00 P.M. The service schedule for Lent will be in the announcement page of the bulletins through lent. I look forward to sharing the preaching with Nancy, Mark, Greg, and Richard. The series for Lent will be based on a devotional book titled "Transformation". I think that you will enjoy the Wednesday night soup and worship services through Lent.

Sabbatical Leave – I am taking my sabbatical leave this year and will need your help in maintaining church attendance and mission. What is a sabbatical? Sabbatical leave offers an extended block of time for study, personal growth and or reflection of our ministry together. Normally the spiritual renewal period of sabbatical is one to three months. I will be gone for about 6 weeks. This time is an important time for the church community. I will need your help in maintaining the mission and the ministry of GSLC while I'm away. The sabbatical time selected does not interfere with the church calendar. It is scheduled for May 22, 2012 – June 30, 2012.

Rejoice in the Lord always!

Pastor Frank

"For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith – and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God – not by works, so that no one can boast." (Eph. 2:8-9)

A Moment In Faith

by Richard P. Tulino, A Layman's Interpretation

This month we have a guest writer. Hello everyone, you probably have been hearing a lot about me in recent weekly readings, so most of you, if you have been going to church regularly know who I am. I really wanted to talk to you all in person, especially the children. I like children. They are more honest than most adults I know. I sure hope that they get a chance to read or hear this.

I have been called bold, cranky, mean spirited and obnoxious by many people. I suppose that I am all of those things. Maybe you would be too, if you had to wear scratchy clothing, eat grasshoppers, and let's be honest you'd be upset too if your middle name was "The".

So here I am John the Baptist! John's my name, Baptism my game! I spent my life telling people that the Messiah of God was coming. Oh, you should have seen the crowds that came out to the Jordan River to hear me preach. Their lives were a mess and I preached a radical message of repentance, telling them they had to turn their lives around and prepare to receive God. Many did what I asked and gave their lives to God through baptism. Others were imposters though and I called them "vipers and snakes". These people thought that I was the Savior of the world. They kept asking, "Was I the Messiah? Was I Elijah? Was I a prophet?" Heavens no I said. I'm merely a voice calling out to them to, "Prepare the way of the Lord. Make your paths straight, fill in the potholes of your lives, and make it like the King's Highway." They resisted and I sent them away. I think maybe I have been misunderstood all these years and I'm the one who has come to repent, repent if my words were misspoken or misunderstood by those who could not grasp what I was trying to say.

I'm here today to tell you that my message was indeed radical, for it was the announcement of a gracious and forgiving Savior who was to come. God is not an angry God as some Jews suspected, coming to penalize the people, but to forgive them. God accepts you just the way you are, but He is not willing to leave you that way. He desires righteousness from you, but you do not have to earn His love. He calls you to justice and compassion, but first offers His own justice and compassion to you. To repent means simply to turn around, to change the direction of your living. A willing heart and open mind is what God asks of you. God will do the rest.

The second misunderstanding comes from my telling people to prepare the way for the Lord's coming. In my day, the main highway did not carry a number like interstate 90 or route 11. No, the main road was always called "The King's Highway". It was on this road the Emperor would arrive when He came to visit our city. Months before crews were sent out to fill in every low spot or as you call them potholes, to pick up rubbish, and to clean up the scenery by which the King would pass. I dare say if President Obama were to come to your city of Conneaut, you would do very much the same. Then how about if the Savior of the World were about to come here? Would you be pleased with the condition of your heart? Or would you cast out the sinful and unsightly practices that would embarrass you? Would you remove every barrier and every roadblock that would prevent this King from taking up residence in your heart? People of my day thought I was calling them to perfection but on the contrary dear friends, I was calling them to honesty and humility with their desperate need for a Savior. I renew that call to you people today for the King is coming soon. Are you ready for Him?

There is one final confession I have to make and it has to do with me and my error. I thought I was pretty big stuff in first century Galilee. People knew my name, they swarmed out to hear me preach and they filed into the water so I might baptize them. I was their Pied Piper, but I failed to tell them that they have a message too. That they could reach people with their lips and their lives that I could never reach. They had the same responsibility to proclaim the same radical message of repentance and forgiveness but I failed to call them to be messengers of the Good News of the Savior who was to come. I was wrong. Don't you be wrong too. Next time you leave church be a witness to the light, and you be the one to tell and spread the "Good News" of the Savior coming to earth in the person of Jesus. Oh, it's a wicked world in which we live, violence and corruption and injustice is everywhere, but there is a Messiah coming, wishing to be born in the hearts of all of you. Prepare the path for His coming and tell all the people you can that it's never too late to receive a King. This is the word of the Lord! Thank you for letting me preach today. It was a great privilege for me.

Herb and Irene Hopkins
Susan (Hopkins) Diamond

The days from Christmas until now have flown by so quickly. It seems like only yesterday we were hanging the greens. Now the festive decorations have all been taken down and stored for another year. What a wonderful and joyous time of the year we all shared together as family and friends.

We would like to take another opportunity to say how very very much we appreciated the generous gift presented to us at Christmas from all of you. Also the many gifts and goodies were wonderful. We never take for granted the kindness and love you give to us.

We are so happy to be here sharing friendship, love and fellowship with each and every one of you. God has blessed us all at Good Shepherd and we give Him praise for these blessings.

As this new year of 2012 begins we ask for your prayers as we pray for all of you. Working and sharing together we will strive to continue to spread the good news of Jesus to all.

God’s Peace and Love,

Pastor and Wanda

SOCIAL MINISTRY

Christmas at Good Shepherd was a wonderful time, and so many of our church members opened their hearts to the joy of sharing! Thanks to the love and generosity of many people, we were able to help in many ways: We:

- Provided bell ringers for the Salvation Army kettle at Kmart. Thank you, Marsha Taylor, for coordinating these efforts!
- Gave each bingo player at the County Home a Christmas card with four quarters. These people love to visit the vending machine for a treat.
- Collected 102 pairs of underwear, 146 pairs of socks, and two large bags of hats & gloves from Thrivent. Thank you Laurie Bidwell, for taking the items to Lakeshore Primary school!
- Sent 9 scarves, 5 hats, and one hat/glove set to Hearts for Hunger which is our Youth Mission project.
- Adopted 9 families (2 of these being church families and 7 HALO families), These 9 families represented 22 adults and children who were given several boxes of food and gifts.

May God bless each of you for your loving and caring hearts. The true meaning of Christmas is alive at Good Shepherd!

The Annual Easter Egg Hunt

is scheduled for Saturday, March 31 at 10 am. The kids will make a craft, have story time, and then hunt for eggs.

Everyone is welcome to bring their children and grandchildren to the Fellowship Hall. It is also a perfect opportunity to invite your neighbor for this fun family event. Each child will need to bring something to collect their eggs in. If weather permits, we will try to hold the event outdoors. A decorated box will be available at church for donations of INDIVIDUALLY wrapped candy. As an example, we cannot accept a 1-pound bag of M&Ms, but we can accept M&Ms in those cute little individually wrapped packages!

SUNDAY SCHOOL REMINDER

Happy New Year to everyone! Let's make it a good one in service to our Lord.

Just a reminder that Sunday School begins at 9:45 am. Having those couple of weeks off for Christmas and New Years was very relaxing but now we need to get back on our regular schedule.

We will be having our Youth Service earlier this year. It will be on April 22. Sunday School will still continue until the end of May.

Thanks for all your support.
